Work to Advance Your Skills and Military Career with a College Degree

As a member of the military, you have worked hard to achieve your goals whether you have retired or continue to remain in active service.

If you are considering a civilian career, you might be wondering how a degree might help you on your career path. This book is designed to provide answers to many frequent questions faced by prospective students, particularly those who have served or are serving in the military.

Trident University International (TUI) prides itself on being a military-supportive school and understands how significant the decision can be to return to school. We hope this book can help you decide and provide you with resources to help make the transition seamless.

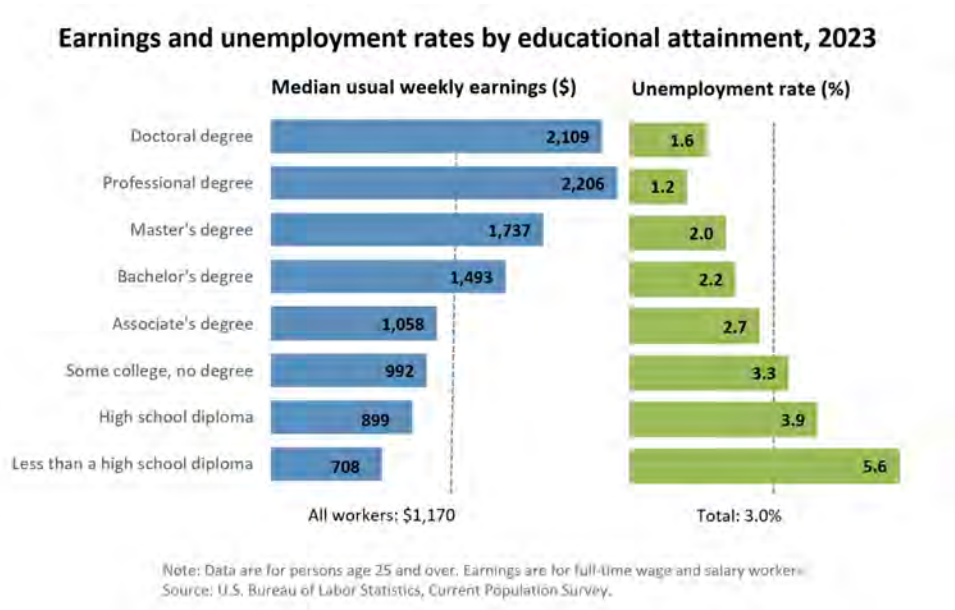

Advance Your Education with a College Degree

People choose to return to school for many reasons from personal goals and growth to finding a career path that matches their passion.

Whatever your reasons, the statistics show that the more education a person has, the less likely they are to face unemployment.

Choosing to return to school can feel like an overwhelming decision which is why Trident is dedicated to supporting military students with resources and benefits to help ease their educational journey. It is one of the reasons why many military member alumni return to further their education at Trident.

Trident University International's Support for Veterans

Trident University International (TUI) is dedicated to supporting veterans in their transition to college life and beyond. Our military-supportive programs are designed to accommodate the unique needs of veterans and active-duty service members.

More than 35,000 alumni with a military-affiliation have graduated from Trident, and the number continues to grow.

Here are some of the ways Trident supports veterans:

Military Credits: Our experienced, knowledgeable admissions team can guide you in converting military experience to college credits, and our quality programs are structured to offer the flexibility and convenience veterans and active-duty service members need.

Veteran Education Grant: Trident University International is proud to provide the Veteran Education Grant¹ for retirees and veterans of the armed forces. All veteran or spouses/dependents of the veteran are eligible for a reduced tuition rate. Through our Veterans Education Grant, you can receive a 20% grant towards tuition for the undergraduate courses, 25% for the graduate courses, and 10-11% for doctoral courses.

VA Education Benefits: The State Approving Agency has approved Trident to administer Veterans Affairs education benefits. We appreciate your assistance as we work to ensure that all necessary documents are submitted to the VA in a timely matter.

Below is a list of VA benefits, which may be utilized at Trident:

Chapter 30	Active Duty Montgomery GI Bill®
Chapter 31	Veteran Readiness Program
Chapter 33	Post 9/11 GI Bill®
Chapter 35	Dependent Education Assistance Program
Chapter 1606	Montgomery GI Bill®-Selected Reserve

GI Bill® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by VA is available at the official U.S. government Web site at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill.

¹University grants or scholarships are based on established criteria as published in the University Catalog or on its website and are awarded after verification that the conditions of eligibility have been met.
