2. To provide clarification on the definition of full time status, the description of Instruction Sessions has been amended as follows:

Instructional Sessions

TUI operates with four main sessions (Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer) and four interim sessions (November, February, May and August) between the main sessions. Each session is 12 weeks in duration. All courses at TUI receive four (4) semester credit hours. A full time load at the undergraduate level is considered to be 2 courses or 8 semester credit hours per 12-week session. A full time load at the graduate or PHD level is considered to be 1 course or 4 semester credit hours per 12-week session.
